BUDO SOUTH OPEN

GREAT SKILLS, GREAT TIME

Congratulation to all those involved in the Budo South open 2023. It was a great event, with some stand out performances. I have posted to YouTube the following

Kyorugi footage:

UPCOMING TAEKWONDO TOURNAMENTS

The calendar for the year is looking good with tournament being run on a monthly basis.

Gold Coast Open

Issac and Jamie are travelling to the Gold Coast on the 28th of April to compete in the Gold Coast Open.

Entering Tournaments

Take a look at the tournament list below, and choose a tournament to enter. I would suggest getting along to the additional classes for Poomsae and Kyorugi sparring - to make sure your skills are what's needed to compete.

OFF TO MEXICO

An exciting adventure for TNZ Referee Director, who will be flying off to Mexico City in May. Garry Carpenter, has accepted an invitation from World Taekwondo, to attend the Paris 2024 Paralympic Games (PG) International Referee (IR) Selection and Training Camp, to be held in Mexico City from May 4th to 7th, 2023.

The selection event runs for 4 days, starting the 3rd of May and finishing the 7th of May. Once the event is over, it is another 30 hours return flights back to New Zealand. The event focus on the refereeing of Paralympic Kyorugi competition. It will be both classroom and practical, with two days set aside for testing.

NO TRAINING ON SATURDAY THE 29TH APRIL

There will be no training for any martial arts on Saturday the 29th April. All the instructors are away.

NO TRAINING ON SATURDAY THE 27TH MAY

There will be no training for any martial arts on Saturday the 27th May. This is the Hapkido Grading Day.
